HAND PICKED. HAND DELIVERED.

JUNE 2022

■ Hello!

Summer is here and the British growing season is in full swing.

For the next few months, we can enjoy the best of British strawberries, cherries and raspberries when they are truly at their best.

So, why not join the Queen and celebrate her Platinum Jubilee with some British raspberries – rumoured to be one of her favourite desserts!

Wishing you all a lovely bank holiday weekend,

Best,

JUNE TOP INSIGHTS

- Melon supply has been an issue due to short supply from Spain. However, this should soon start to ease as the Italian season starts, which will also ease the pressure on price.
- We're delighted that English salad crop is now in full swing, although it's been a bumpy road due to poor weather affecting the normal supply from Spain.
- After another amazing asparagus crop from Portwood, we will be sad to see it end...but don't worry asparagus from Wye Valley will continue for another month at least.
